GROUND TO DEATH UNDER TRAIN

GEORGE WILLIAMS MEETS HORRIBLE FATE AT ROWLAND SATURDAY NIGHT

George Williams, aged 32 years, residing with his father and family on the farm of W. P. Grimes in the Preachersville section, was ground to death by a train near the water tank at Rowland Saturday night. It is not known which train killed him, as no one saw him in that neighborhood before the horrible accident in which he lost his life, and the mangled body was not discovered until after daylight Sunday morning.

Williams had come to Stanford late Saturday afternoon with the intention of taking the excursion here Sunday morning for Louisville. He was to have joined some friends here and when he did not show up at the four o'clock train Sunday morning, they supposed that he had changed his mind about going, and were horrified later to learn of his death.

About 11 o'clock Saturday night, young Williams was in the restaurant of John D. Horton on Main street and Mr. Horton seeing that he was apparently ill, tried to induce him to retire for the night, telling Williams that he would have him called in time for his train. This Williams declined to do, and Horton saw no more of him until after his body was found.

Coroner George P. Bright went to the scene and summoned the following jury: Wm. Land, Wm. Buchanan, J. C. Eubanks, W. H. Wearren, E. T. Pence, and J. F. Naylor. After viewing the remains, the following verdict was rendered:

"We, the jury, find that George Williams came to his death by being struck by a train at or near the water tank at Rowland, Ky., during the night of June 25th, 1910."

It was suspected at first that Williams had been murdered and robbed and his body placed on the track to conceal the crime, but this theory did not hold good long as $6.35 was found on his person and his brother stated to the coroner that he had only about $10 when he left home Saturday afternoon. Williams spent a few dollars after he reached town and the remainder was found in his pocketbook.

The remains of the young man were laid to rest in the Lancaster cemetery Monday afternoon, a large concourse at the grave testifying to the his popularity.

Tobacco In Rockcastle

BIG CROP EXPECTED AND WAREHOUSES MAY BE BUILT

The tobacco crop in Rockcastle for 1910 will reach several hundred acres. Farmers who only put out one and two acres last year have out five and 16 this year. Cashier Richards and A. B. Furnish who have always taken an active interest in getting the tobacco industry started in this county recently bought a farm near Level Green for the purpose of raising tobacco, say that they have out twenty acres and that it is looking fine. Mr. Richards who for a number of years was a tobacco raiser in Gallatin county, is enthusiastic in his claims about Rockcastle as a tobacco producing county. Mr. Richards says that a warehouse for rehandling of tobacco will be erected in Mt. Vernon. The White Twist Bud is the tobacco being most raised and is specially recommended for that county. The Rockcastle tobacco crop will reach 500 or more acres this year.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Union Veteran

JOHN PRITCHARD SUCCUMBS TO OPERATION FOR HERNIA

John Pritchard, a Union veteran, who had lived at Rowland for many years, passed away Saturday night as a result of an operation for hernia, with which he had been suffering for some time. He was laid to rest in Buffalo cemetery Sunday afternoon, services being conducted at the home by Mr. J. C. McClary.

Mr. Pritchard was 69 years of age and leaves a wife and two sons. He was a member of the Baptist church, and will be sincerely mourned by his many friends.

BUENA VISTA COMPTON PARDONED BY GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE SAYS HE IS TOO YOUNG TO BE A HABITUAL CRIMINAL

A dispatch from Frankfort to the city papers Monday said: Gov. Wilson today pardoned Buena Vista Compton, sentenced to the penitentiary for life for housebreaking at the November term, 1906, of the Lincoln circuit court. Compton is only 21 years of age and this was his third conviction. The pardon was recommended by the Commonwealth's Attorney, the County Clerk, the Senator, R. L. Hubble and a number of the jurors. Gov. Wilson says:

"That while the habitual criminal law is a very good one, it was made to punish settled criminals, and I do not think that as young a man as this comes within the purpose of the law, although clearly within the letter."

Young Compton resides in the west end of the county.

Lewis-Keeton

POPULAR LOCAL WOMAN WEDS AT COVINGTON

Her many local friends were greatly surprised to learn that on last Wednesday at 8 o'clock at the home of her brother, Alfred A. Lewis, of Covington, Miss Georgia Lewis, of this city, and Mr. Charles W. Keeton, of Williamsburg, were married. The bride is a daughter of the late Dr. T. M. Lewis of this county and is admired by all for her efficiency, graciousness of manner and many sterling qualities. Mr. Keeton is one of Williamsburg's most prominent and substantial citizens and will be most heartily congratulated by all upon winning this home bride.

Chicken Thief Killed

EARLY MONDAY MORNING, BY MR. CIERO REYNOLDS

Mr. Ciero Reynolds killed a chicken thief Monday morning. Don't get excited, though, for it was not a two-legged thief, but a weasel that had come to pay a visit to the gentlemen's henry.

Mr. Reynolds is a very early riser and in company with his son-in-law, Frank Hunn, was sitting on his porch at 4:30 o'clock Monday morning when they noticed something gliding through the grass. They pursued the little varmint, and Mr. Reynolds finally succeeded in ending its existence with a stick. Fortunately the weasel had not reached the hen house of Mr. Reynolds might not have fared so well.

Lee Rupley lost about 50 out of a flock of 70 chickens recently and while he and Mr. Reynolds live some distance apart, it is not unlikely that the latter has removed the cause of Mr. Rupley's trouble and loss.

ECZEMA—A GERM DISEASE CAN NOW BE CURED

The medical profession is all agreed that Eczema is a germ disease, but the thing that has baffled them is to find some remedy that will get to the germs and destroy them.

Zemo, the clean, external treatment, has solved this difficulty by drawing the germs to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the diseases. The whole method of treatment and cure by Zemo is explained in an interesting book on the subject issued by the makers of Zemo. It tells how to cure yourself at home of Eczema, Blackheads, Pimples, Dandruff and all diseases of the skin and scalp. Call at Penny's Drug Store for booklet and learn more about this clean, simple remedy that is now recognized the standard treatment for all diseases of the skin and scalp.

POPULAR LANCASTER YOUNG LADY DEAD

MISS MARGARET TOMLINSON SUCCUMBS AFTER LONG ILLNESS—GARRARD NEWS

Lancaster, June 27. The death of Miss Margaret Marrs Tomlinson Saturday evening at five o'clock after a lingering illness of tuberculosis, cast a gloom over the entire community. The death of the aged and infirm in years is expected, and will follow in the course of time, but to see a young lady, the pride of the home in that she was the oldest daughter and sister, taken off in the bloom of young womanhood is indeed sad and all sympathize with those who are now so sorely bereaved. A change of climate in Hendersonville, N. C., during the winter months was advised by physicians thinking it the only means to prolong life. In the spring she returned to Lancaster and continued to grow weaker day by day until Saturday evening when the fitful fever ended.

What makes her death doubly sad, is that her mother is also a victim of that dread disease, tuberculosis.

The pall-bearers selected for her funeral were the young men of the community with whom she was so intimately associated. Miss Tomlinson having been one of the leading society young ladies and social favorites of Lancaster. They were Messrs. W. B. Burton, John M. Farra, W. D. Denny, J. Herbert Kinnard, Frank E. Marks, and John E. Stormes. The funeral was held in the Lancaster cemetery Monday afternoon, services being conducted by Dr. E. H. Pierce and Rev. C. C. Brown.

Close Call

TOOK WRONG MEDICINE

Joseph Berka, a well-known shoemaker, of Junction City, had a close call for his life Wednesday. He accidentally took an overdose of some sort of opiate and for 12 hours Drs. Chase and Steele, of Junction City, worked with him to save his life.

Berka was ill Tuesday night, and took some medicine. Whatever it was Berka took an overdose and when his family sent for the physicians he was sinking rapidly. The doctors applied all cures known for the resuscitation of patients overcome by an opiate, and, at last, revived Berka. His many friends will be glad to know he is now out of danger and in a fair way to recovery.

Mr. Helm's Good Work

CONGRESS ADJOURNS AND REPRESENTATIVE WILL RETURN

Private Secretary George L. Willis, of Congressman Harvey Helm has returned to his home at Shelbyville. As Congress has adjourned, Mr. Helm is expected home very shortly.

In an interview in a Shelbyville paper Mr. Willis told of some of the splendid work for his constituency accomplished by Mr. Helm during the term just closed. The Congressman from the Eighth is one of the hardest workers in the national body and is always found on the job when the interests of his people are concerned. Mr. Willis said:

"Mr. Helm has been exceptionally fortunate for a member of the minority during the last days of the session. He an appropriation of $60,000 to build a public building at Lawrenceburg, on the $7,500 site that has been already purchased under his last session bill for that town; and, what seemed to please him most of all, was the victory he and other minority members of the Insular Affairs Committee won for the island of Porto Rico. They changed the administration bill that sought to make that island a dependency upon the White House—a victim of Wall Street and the sugar trusts, and forced from them almost perfect territorial government for the worthy people of that island. He devoted more time to the preparation and delivery of his speech against the Ship Subsidy grab than to any of his speeches at this session and that bill has been side-tracked for the present. The leaders in both parties at Washington believe there is certain to be a democratic House next time."

ENDS WINTER'S TROUBLE

FROM 'WAY DOWN IN GEORGIA

E. C. WALTON WRITES INTERESTING LETTERS TO THE FOLKS AT HOME.

Atlanta, Ga., June 22

You were kind enough to publish my last letter and by your goodness you have gotten yourself in a box, for here is another right on the heels of the first. Tell your proof reader he did very well for a beginner and I think he will come out fairly well if he keeps on trying. Tell him, also, that Dr. W. N. Craig knows how to fit glasses and that he might have the doctor work on his optics with profit to himself.

Well, the Legislature is upon us and the politicians large and small lobbyist and the like encumber the earth of this Godly city. For 50 long days the Legislature will be with us but the work laid out for them could be easily accomplished in a fifth of the time if they would attend to business like business men. The question of having biennial, rather than yearly sessions, will come before the august body but the change will not likely be made. The per item fellows would rather meet semi-annually or even quarterly than once every two years. The dailies say those members of the House and Senate who are persona non grata with Gov. Brown will decide on a candidate to defeat him for a re-nomination. However, the Gov. has a strong hold on the Georgia people and predict he will outwit them in their plans. He is a frail man, small in stature and getting along in years but he is a good mixer and understands the game of politics thoroughly and give the man or men pitted against him a fight they will never forget. He announces that he will make no speeches thus showing his good judgment. He is not a magnetic speaker and he knows it.

Each week sees an advance in real estate. The climax was topped yesterday when $400 per front foot was realized for a piece of property on a very poor street and long ways from the heart of town. A real estate man said in my presence that $200 would have been a magnificent price Atlanta dirt sells and sells high.

There are 62 Waltons in Atlanta, according to the directory, but I know only two of them, my brother Mr. T. R. Walton and his excellent wife. The four members of my family runs the total to 66. Quite a colony. I shall try to meet some of them if they are wealthy and prominent. I may try to hang on their family tree. Otherwise not.

I have enjoyed going to several of the Sunday schools here and listening to the delightful singing. I use the word "delightful" because I know none other that expresses the quality so well. At the Wesley Memorial Sunday School eight violins, one clarinet, five cornets, two trombones, two drums and a piano assist the hundreds of voices and the music is stuporously entrancing. Asa G. Candler, maker of the great drink, coca cola, is a leading member of the Wesley memorial church, a prominent worker in every good cause and a leading citizen of Atlanta. He is also probably Atlanta's richest man some claiming that his income is at least $1,000,000 a year.

Atlanta merchants believe in advertising. Some time ago the dry goods firm of Chamberlain, Dubose & Johnson used 17 pages of the Journal to tell about their good things they were offering. This was a record breaker until a week ago when Daniel Eros, Peachtree street men's furnishings, used 33 pages of the Georgian. This new record will likely stand for awhile. I had the pleasure of hearing Ex. Gov. Joseph W. Folk speak at the Grand Opera House Sunday. He came in the interest of Dr. Len G. Braughton's tabernacle, which needed $15,000 to accomplish its completion. A collection was taken and $19,000 was raised. Nearly $100,000 had previously been collected for the project. The ex-governor made a splendid address. He was introduced by F. L. Seeley, editor of the Georgian, who referred to him as the next president of the U. S. This brought prolonged applause. Mr. Folk is hardly as substantial a man in his appearance as his pictures make him and is unfortunate in having a very poor voice, but what he says is to the point and has much force behind it. The young men's Democratic Club wined and dined him during his stay here and gave him the time of his life.

This is a splendidly managed city. The taxation is not high for what the citizens get and there is every evidence of judicious work by the mayor

Narrow Escape

MRS. ELIZA CORDIER'S HORSE BACKS OVER BRIDGE

Mrs. Eliza Cordier had a very narrow escape from death or serious injury Sunday afternoon while driving out the Russellville pike to attend the funeral of Mr. John Pritchard. The horse she was driving began to back just as he was on the bridge over St. Asaph creek. Mrs. Cordier was unable to stop him, but a man in a rig behind her caught him and held him long enough for Mrs. Cordier and her companion, a young girl, to jump out. The horse then backed on off the bridge, smashing the buggy. The railing on the bridge gave way and one end falling into the water below, the horse in a manner slid down and was not badly hurt. The buggy turned over completely in its fall and had not the occupants been enabled to get out on the bridge, the consequences would have been horrible to contemplate.

DASTARDLY EFFORT TO WRECK TRAIN

CROSS-TIES TIED ON L. & N. TRACK AT POINT BEYOND CRAB ORCHARD.

Fast train, No. 22, on the L. & N. railroad, from Norton, Va., to Louisville carrying members of the Press Association returning from the convention at Middlesboro Friday afternoon, at 4:50 o'clock, hit an obstruction of cross-ties which had been placed by trainwreckers on the track in a deep gorge between East Bernstadt and Hazel Patch.

Engineer Michael Grady saw the obstruction in time to slow down somewhat, although the heavy locomotive plowed through the timbers while going at a rate of 20 miles an hour. The pilot of the engine was badly damaged. The train was in charge of Conductor Joe Robinson.

It was found that some murderously inclined fiend had taken two cross ties and fastened one to each rail, lengthwise and fastened them securely with heavy wires, one of the ties being further up the track by a few feet than the other. When the cow catcher hit the first tie, it tore it loose from the rail and shot it out in the valley below like a catapult for a hundred yards or more. The second tie was more securely fastened, however, and got under the cow catcher and had the engineer not put on the emergency brakes as quickly as he did, the whole train would have been thrown down an embankment 50 or 60 feet. The United States marshal was notified and a posse of men went out to the neighborhood to see if the wretches could be located.

Campbell Cantrill defeated Claude Thomas for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Seventh district by about 2,500 majority in the primary held Saturday. Few were surprised at the result. Cantrill's work had all the money they could spend, contributed by the Whisky and Beer Trust, the Tobacco Trust, the School Book Trust and other big "interests," which Cantrill had represented so long as a professional lobbyist. The active support of Clarence Lebus, the republican president of the Burley Tobacco Society, undoubtedly hurt Thomas considerably the voters seem to forget, however, that this was just what gave Cantrill the nomination over Kimball two years ago. Cantrill carried all the counties in the district except Bourbon and Woodford. His majority in Franklin was small. That he carried it at all was due to the fact that the "old organization" was not at the helm actively in charge of the fight for Thomas, the leadership being held by a number of prominent tobacco men.
